UNITED STATES LEPEES.

SURGEON-GENERAL WYMAN WANTS A NATIONAL HOSPITAL.

If Congress Carries Out His Wishes the Establishment Will Be on the Pacific Coast.

The treatment of lepers in the United States is the subject of much consideration at present in various States of the Union, especially California. It is also receiving the attention of the National authorities and will be one of the subjects brought up in the present Congress.

Surgeon-General Wyman of the United States Marine Hospital has made a report to Secretary Carlisle which will soon be made public. He recommends that Congress pass an appropriation for a National hospital for lepers. He does not recommend any amount of money nor any particular location, but if Congress carries out his wishes the hospital will be on the Pacific Coast, and in all probability near San Francisco.

The recommendations of Dr. Wyman are in line with an address he made on this subject in Washington some months ago before the Congress of American Physicians and Surgeons. In 1889 a circular was issued by the Surgeon-General forbidding the entry of any vessel unless a certificate was shown that the vessel had no lepers aboard. Dr. Wyman said in his address that the immigration law of the United States providing for medical inspection of immigrants forbids the landing of immigrants afflicted with leathsome or contagious diseases, and furnished an additional protection against importation of cases of leprosy. These laws and regulations have in a measure at least been effective.

"I am informed by the sanitary inspector stationed at Havana," he says, "that several persons afflicted with leprosy desiring to immigrate to Florida have been debarred from so doing by reason of these restrictions. National control of leprosy within the United States has been frequently advocated, particularly by State and municipal boards of health when finding such cases upon their hands and desirous of being relieved of their care. The arguments for such control, of course, are based upon the presumption of contagiousness of the disease (even though moderately contagious) and upon the claim that where no segregation of cases or no supervision of cases not colonized is enforced the disease gradually increases in prevalence, and that where segregation or colonization has been enforced the disease has been made to disappear. One reason alleged for a National establishment is the fact that in some States the disease is of so rare occurrence that the erection of a special hospital or place of confinement for lepers is scarcely justified, and it is desirable, therefore, that there should be established an asylum to which any of the States might send these unusual but highly objectionable patients."

Mrs. McLennan's Condition.

The many friends of Mrs. Dr. McLennan will be pained to hear that her condition has not improved since yesterday. At 2 o'clock this afternoon she was still in a precarious condition. Miss Nellie McLennan is improving rapidly and will be over the effects of the accident in a few days.

A LOVE FEAST.

Lieutenant Wall Will Not Leave the Sharpshooters.

The result of the special meeting of the Sharpshooters held last evening is that Lieutenant W. E. Wall will not sever his connection with that body, in spite of the wishes of the Commander-in-Chief and Colonel McLean that he should run for the first lieutenantancy of Company D.

Lieutenant Wall occupied the chair at the meeting and after stating that the object was to obtain an expression of opinion from the members on the matter before them, asked permission to withdraw. This was refused by the members present.

The following resolution, introduced by Second Lieutenant J. L. McLean, was passed without a dissenting voice:

Whereas our First Lieutenant, Mr. W. E. Wall, has been asked by the Commander-in-Chief and certain officers of the Regiment, to run for election as First Lieutenant of Co. "D," N. G. H., and whereas, his election to such office would cause his withdrawal from his present position as officer and member of the 1st Co. Sharpshooters of Hawaii, and whereas such action on his part would greatly injure and impair the present efficiency of the Company he at present commands, therefore be it resolved that the members of the 1st Co. Sharpshooters of Hawaii, in special meeting assembled, do hereby protest against the efforts made, to cause his withdrawal from said Company, and earnestly request him to decline the office offered him, and to remain an officer and member of the 1st Co. Sharpshooters of Hawaii. While so feeling, we wish to express our hearty sympathy with all those who are trying to improve the efficiency of the military.

During the debate on the resolution Colonel McLean spoke of the necessity of having a good man for the first lieutenant of Company D, and expressed the hope that Mr. Wall would withdraw from the Sharpshooters.

After the passage of the resolution by the unanimous vote of the Sharpshooters present, Mr. Wall announced that he would stay with the Sharpshooters and the meeting broke up with three cheers in his honor.

THE ROBERT W. LOGAN.

Arrival of the Little Missionary Schooner.

There was some excitement in the city yesterday when it was known that the tug Eleu was coming into port with a strange schooner in tow, but it was generally considered that it was the missionary schooner Robert W. Logan, which was overdue from San Francisco, and this turned out to be the fact.

The little vessel left San Francisco on November 19th and reached the islands last Saturday, since when she has been drifting about while her passengers and crew put in their time whistling for the wind. They were very glad to see the tug, even if they were mistaken for opium smugglers.

Captain Bray, formerly of the Morning Star, is in charge of the vessel and has his wife and daughter with him. Mate G. I. Foster is also accompanied by his wife. There were also two passengers, Henry Gitman of Boston and Hugo Fischer of San Francisco.

The vessel will probably remain here two weeks before proceeding to the Caroline Islands. She was overhauled by the customs people this morning but of course nothing contraband was found. She will take on a quantity of stores and some freight while here.

Chief Clerk Hassinger conducted a sale of building lots on Punchbowl at noon today, at the front entrance of the Executive building. They were bought as follows:

No. 603, Ralph Turner, $430.

On Monday at 10 o'clock, at the old Legislative Hall in the Judiciary Building, James F. Morgan will sell crockery and glassware belonging to different monarchs of Hawaii. Particulars tomorrow.

FESTIVITIES AT HAMAKUA.

FAIR WOMEN AND BRAVE MEN UNDER ELECTRIC GLOW.

Fashionable Ball at Residence of J. B. Renton—List of Guests—Dresses, etc.

One of the most delightful dances ever given here took place at the beautiful residence of Mr. J. B. Renton, Saturday, Dec. 7, 1895. The rooms of the spacious dwelling were beautifully and most tastefully decorated with evergreens, ferns, etc., and, brilliantly lighted with electric light, presented a most charming appearance. The genial host was assisted by Mrs. and Miss Madden, and they surpassed themselves in their endeavors to entertain their friends, and to make this party one of the gayest and most delightful of the season.

This dance was quite the most fashionable affair ever seen here, and was largely attended by the youth and beauty of the district, by many interesting strangers of other districts, and by all lovers of dancing of both far and near. The ball opened quite early and was kept up in a most spirited and merry manner until midnight, when some very choice and delectable viands were served, and soon after which the guests departed, highly pleased with their evening's entertainment.

Prominent among the assembled guests, we noticed Mr. and Mrs. E. Madden, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Blacow, Mr. W. S. Seabacker, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Barnard, Mrs. Jas. Horner, Mrs. Podmore, Mrs. Brodick, Mrs. Poulson, Mrs. Thomson, Miss Horner, Miss Alice Horner, Miss Olive Horner, Miss Polly Rickard, Miss Nellie Rickard, Miss Josephine Barnard, Miss Margaret Greenfield, Miss Emma Mullinger, Miss Madden, Messrs. F. M. Swanzy, W. McKenzie, C. McQuaid, G. McLennan, J. McLennan, R. Horner, G. Osborne, W. Beckeburg, Dr. C. L. Stow, J. W. Leonhart, F. Greenfield, Ramsay.

To the feminine readers I would say, that all the ladies were beautifully and many of them elegantly dressed. The following is a brief description of them: Mrs. E. Madden in white, trimmed with blue; Miss Madden, in white; Miss Mullinger, pink silk, trimmed with green chiffon; Miss Barnard, white confection, trimmed with lace; Mrs. Jos. Horner, black silk, with cream silk waist; Miss Olive Horner, pink, trimmed with black; Miss Horner, in white; Miss Alice Horner, in white, trimmed with pink; Mrs. Blacow, in cream silk; Miss Greenfield, blue delaine; Mrs. Barnard, in pink, trimmed with lace; Mrs. Seabacker, in cream, trimmed with blue; Mrs. Podmore, in black silk, trimmed with lace; Mrs. Poulson, in black silk; Miss Nellie Rickard, in pink; Miss Polly Rickard, in white; Mrs. Brodick, black lace, trimmed with cream chiffon; Mrs. Thompson, in black lace, with blue sash.

GUEST.

Pauilo, Dec. 10, 1895.

Company G.

At the meeting of this company last night First Lieutenant J. M. Kea was elected to the captaincy, made vacant by the death of Henry Kain. Second Lieutenant Charles Wilcox was elected first lieutenant and Joseph Morse second. The new officers will be examined as to their proficiency by a board composed of Majors Jones and McLeod and Captain Camara.

VISITING DELEGATES.

Members of the American Board of Foreign Missions Here.

The following members of the American Board of Foreign Missions arrived on the China on their way home from Japan: Rev. Dr. Barton, secretary of the board; Rev. Dr. Bradford of Montclair, N. J.; Mr. Ellison, chairman of the Morning Star committee, and Rev. Dr. Johnson of Chicago, who is accompanied by Mrs. Johnson.

On their arrival this morning the visitors were taken in hand by a committee consisting of Chief Justice Judd, Rev. Dr. Hyde and P. C. Jones and escorted through the government buildings and principal schools.

At one o'clock this afternoon lunch was provided at the Central Union church parlors and the visiting clergy were introduced to a number of prominent church people, among whom our reporter noticed President and Mrs. Dole, Mrs. Bingham, Mrs. Dr. Cean, Rev. and Mrs. Birnie, Rev. and Mrs. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Damon, Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. P. T. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Atherton, Mr. and Mrs. Bowen, Chief Justice and Mrs. Judd, Associate Justice Frear, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Rev. O. P. Emerson, Secretary and Mrs. Corbett, Prof. and Mrs. Alexander, Prof. and Mrs. Richards, Judge Magoon, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Jones, Dr. Smith, Mrs. Gulick, Miss Bingham and Mrs. S. N. Castle.

After lunch informal speeches were in order. On behalf of the visiting delegation Rev. Dr. Bradford made a humorous speech, first recounting his pleasure at meeting with an old familiar New Jersey friend in the shape of a Honolulu mosquito, and afterwards telling of his meeting with young Mr. Bingham in an American college. He closed with an eloquent tribute to the memory of General Armstrong and a eulogy of President Dole.

President Dole, at the request of Rev. Mr. Birnie, told of the pleasure experienced by those present in being able to meet the delegates, and stated that he believed since occupying his present position as president he had grown much more liberal in his religious views through being thrown into contact with all denominations.

He was glad to have had the opportunity of meeting the delegates of the American Board and hoped to have that pleasure again, either here or in America. He was glad they had an opportunity to see some of its government and scholastic institutions. In conclusion he wished them all godspeed on their homeward journey.

After singing a hymn the meeting broke up. Carriages were provided and the visitors will be driven about the city until the steamer sails.

THE CHINA'S ROUGH TRIP.

THE VESSEL WAS HOVE TO ALL ONE DAY.

Seventy-five Tons of Coal Thrown Overboard to Trim Ship in a Severe Storm.

The Pacific Mail Steamship China arrived this morning, about a day and a half late, caused by the bad weather she experienced. When three days out from Yokohama a severe storm was encountered in which a vessel less staunch and seaworthy than the China would have had a hard time. The steamer was hove to for 27 hours during the worst of the storm, during which she rolled in the trough of the sea to a fearful degree. The indicators in the engine room showed that at times she rolled 43 degrees. Two degrees more would have placed the ship on her beam ends and another ocean disaster might have been chronicled. Seventy-five tons of coal in sacks on the deck was thrown overboard during the worst of the storm.

The passengers are loud in their praise of Captain Seabury and his officers for their conduct during the storm, which lasted three days.

The China has 80 Oriental steerage passengers and 838 contract Japanese laborers all of whom were placed in quarantine this morning for seven days. The vessel took on board an extra quantity of coal during the day and leaves for San Francisco at 5 o'clock with two passengers from this port.

Death of Mrs. C. M. Walton.

Mrs. C. M. Walton, wife of the manager of Pahala plantation, died this morning of consumption at the residence of Jno. M. Angus on Richards street. The deceased lady has been ill for some time but in the last few days has grown rapidly worse. Word was sent to her husband by the Kaunohi last week of the change in her condition and he rode from Pahala to Hilo in six hours, a distance of 56 miles, in order to catch the Kinau and be with his wife in her last hours.

The funeral will take place from the Angus residence tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, the arrangements being under the direction of H. H. Williams. Rev. D. P. Birnie will conduct the services.

Mrs. Walton's maiden name was Emma Towne, and she was born at Boxford, Mass., April 15, 1856, consequently was in her fortieth year. With her husband she leaves a son four or five years old. She had many friends in Honolulu as well as in the country.

Salvation Army.

Most people were too busy last night thinking about Christmas to go to the Salvation Army meeting at Y. M. C. A. hall, but the few who did attend made up in earnestness and enthusiasm for those who did not. The Hilo contingent which arrived on the Kinau told about their progress in that rainy town and Adjutant Egner made public the following statistics: Total attendance at meetings since September, 1894, in Honolulu and Hilo, 48,227, an average of 777 per week; 671 open air meetings, 534 hours visiting, 30,200 War Cry's sold 4950 children attended meetings, 353 people professed conversion, 28 soldiers on roll, 35 recruits; average salary of officers, $2.65 per week. Another meeting will be held at the same hall this evening.
